

PROPOSED CHANGES TO WOMEN'S LEAGUE BYLAWS For presentation at Convention 2012

INTRODUCTION

On October 5, 2010, the Women's League for Conservative Judaism board of directors enthusiastically accepted a new Strategic Plan that will help the organization meet current and future needs by becoming the vital network of all the women of the Conservative movement.

In order to implement the Strategic Plan, it is necessary to amend some of our current bylaws. The following are the primary amendments being presented for approval at Convention 2012 in Las Vegas, December 2-5, 2012:

1. The fiscal year is being changed to July 1- June 30 to be more in sync with our sisterhoods.
2. Membership will be open to all women who support the mission of Women's League and pay dues.
3. Any Women's League member who attends a convention or annual meeting will be a voting delegate.
4. The term of office for Women's League [1] officers, [2] nominating committee, [3] activity chairs and liaisons, [4] members-at-large appointed by the president, and [5] trainers will be three, rather than two, years. The following are not changes to the bylaws:
  - a. Members of the board who are named by their region, region presidents and immediate past region presidents will serve two-year terms, in line with the region election schedule.
  - b. Past international presidents and honorary board members remain permanent members of the board.
5. Convention will be held every third year.

Please read these bylaws amendments carefully and share them with others. If you have questions, please contact Parliamentarian Sandy Myers (smyers58@verizon.net).
