Women's League Shabbat 5781

This year's theme – shared jointly by Women's League and Torah Fund is B'Yachad-Together. How appropriate for the extraordinary times in which we are living when being physically together has been such a challenge.

We are delighted to provide for you a guide to Women's League/Sisterhood Shabbat which will be held this year on January 16, 2021. Although this year may look different, the important part is that we can be together in whatever way works for your individual Sisterhood. Included are a d'var torah for Torah parasha Va'era a d'var Torah for use on a different Shabbat, readings for our theme of B'Yachad-together, and messages from our International WLCJ President Debbi Kaner Goldich, our International WLCJ Torah Fund Chair, Barbara Ezring, and the WLCJ Executive Director Rabbi Ellen Wolintz-Fields.

Each Sisterhood can choose how and which of these materials they will use. Because we will be together in a different way this year, we have also included information on how an inspirational Women's League/Sisterhood Shabbat can be accomplished virtually.

Our thanks go to Ellen Kaner Bresnick and Julia Loeb Education Committee Chairs, Rabbi Ellen S. Wolinz-Fields Executive Director of WLCJ, Debbi Kaner Goldich International WLCJ President, Grace Schlessler Programming Chair and the many women who have brought in their ideas to make this year's virtual Shabbat so meaningful.

Our wish for every sisterhood within our Women's League family is that however Women's League/Sisterhood Shabbat looks this year we will find comfort in being together.

B'shalom,
